

KEY THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT YOUR PLAN

REVIEW YOUR COVERAGE

Your insurance does not cover everything! Review your benefits before using the plan. There are limits and exclusions to your coverage.

CURRENT HEALTH CONDITIONS

or injuries you have when arriving to Canada may not be eligible for coverage. Please contact us for more information.

THE HEALTH PLAN OFFICE is located on campus to assist you with your health plan questions or concerns.

FIND A DOCTOR

or other medical provider on the website using the Provider Search Tool. Please visit Acadia Health Services when possible.

YOUR HEALTH PLAN CARD

Scan the QR Code to get your card.

SEE A DOCTOR

Doctors are available on campus to treat your health concerns and prescribe medication. These campus doctors will accept your insurance so you do not have to pay out of pocket.

I.M. Well

It is important to check in on your mental health.

If you are feeling sad, lonely or having trouble adjusting you can speak privately to a professional counsellor.

We encourage you to talk to someone and check-in on how you are feeling with the help from a counsellor through I.M. Well.

We have counsellors ready to talk to you through telephone, live chat and in-person. Download the I.M. Well mobile app for free.

We are here 24/7 including weekends and holidays. Counselling is available in over 200 languages.
